

SHOOTING AFFRAY IN BLUE RIDGE

With Knife and Pistol Mountaineers Fight Over Gambling Game.

IN PURSUIT OF AUTOMOBILISTS

Negro Pleads Guilty to Charge of Train Wrecking.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
WINCHESTER, VA., September 18.—As the result of a shooting affray late Sunday afternoon near Mt. Airy, Clarke county, Jefferson Hummer, a young white man living in the Blue Ridge mountains, lies in a precarious condition, with a bullet wound in the back of his head and another in the left side. Corb Costello, another mountaineer is under arrest charged with the shooting. The men quarreled while gambling, and Hummer slashed Costello across the back with a big knife, inflicting a gash eight inches long. Covered with blood, Costello fired his revolver at Hummer, two shots taking effect. Several months ago Hummer with other men, Costello and Hummer were in a shooting affray, in which both were wounded.

KILLED WITH A POKER.
Ward Smith, a clerk in the store of James B. Morgan, at Gerardsville, Berkeley county, Va., was attacked on Saturday night by a drunken negro named Joseph Winter who entered the store and became abusive. Smith, who is a young man, picked up a poker and struck the negro over the head, inflicting injuries from which Winter died to-day. In the Corporation Court to-day Robert Washington, a colored youth, pleaded guilty to the charge of attempting to wreck a train on the Baltimore and Ohio railroad recently, and was sentenced to the colored reform school near Richmond. Robert Jefferson and George Brown, who were Washington's accomplices, also made confession and will probably be sent to the same institution.

AUTOMOBILIST TOOLS.
A party of automobilists, consisting of W. D. Wilson, W. Van Wagoner, T. H. Smith and Dr. L. H. Keller, of Hagerstown, who arrived here to-day threaten to sue the Winchester and Martinsburg Turnpike Company to test the law regulating the toll on automobiles, claiming that they were compelled to pay excessive rates at a gate near this city. It is said that they belong to the Automobilists' Protective Association of Hagerstown, the purpose of which is to protect owners of automobiles.

The police authorities of Frederick county are pursuing a party of automobilists, whose machine ran over and killed a valuable dog this morning on the north side of Winchester. The dog, which is a St. Bernard, was killed by the automobile of a party of automobilists, belonging to Furlong Kern. The automobilists stopped here but a few moments, and were last heard from at Woodstock late this afternoon. Their names could not be ascertained, but they are said to be from Hagerstown. The number of their machine was 10-27.

SUES THE CITY.
Through his attorney, Mr. W. Roy Stephenson, another suit has been instituted against the city of Winchester, and the board of trustees of the Handley fund, by Mr. Robert M. Ward, former city solicitor. This time Mr. Ward sues for the sum of $250,000, claiming that the city council, representing attorneys for which the claims are due him for services rendered the city and the Handley board. Some months ago Mr. Ward sued the city and Handley board for $12,000, alleging counsel fees, but failed to win.

McCall, and the other side by Senator Mendenhall, of Fairfax, and Judge B. T. Duke, of Charlottesville. The crowd was divided, both sides speaking on the public streets within a stone's throw of each other. Everything passed off quietly.

NORFOLK TO HAVE ITS OWN COMPANY

Will Profit By Financial Scandals in Life Insurance.

PRISONER CAUGHT BY NAIL

Officers Being Assigned to the New Cruiser Charleston.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
NORFOLK, VA., September 18.—The financial scandals that have developed in connection with certain of the big New York Life Insurance Companies have moved certain of Norfolk's most wealthy business men to a consideration of the organization of a local life insurance company. A meeting has already been held for discussion of the project. Bankers of Norfolk, Portsmouth and Berkeley are those chiefly interested.

The leading spirits in the enterprise contend that the big companies conduct their business far too extravagantly and with too little regard for the interest of policy-holder, that the business can be conducted more economically, policies sold cheaper, and at the same time the holder given a superior deal.
It is proposed to organize the new company with a capital of $5,000. There are many holders in Norfolk of large policies, in Northern companies, and they have become decidedly dissatisfied with revelations in the life insurance business as it is conducted in New York.

CAUGHT BY A NAIL.

A nail in the top of a Park View fence, which William Graham, colored, was scaling, closely pursued by a gang of negroes, was directly the cause of his capture by the police. He is now in jail awaiting the examination for cutting Miles Wilson, a hostler, in Cooke street shortly after midnight Saturday night. It was stated by a bystander that Graham whipped out a razor and slashed the hostler on the hip, making quite a painful, although not a serious wound. After the cutting Graham fled and was caught just as he was in the act of scaling the fence on which he was caught by a nail, which enabled the police to catch him. Graham was caught by his trousers and had to be taken down by the officers. He was later delivered to the Norfolk county authorities for trial.

ORDERED TO THE CHARLESTON.

Lieutenant William T. Parsons, U. S. Navy, who has been attached to the United States cruiser Hartford, of the coast defense squadron, North Atlantic fleet, since May 22, 1905, has been assigned to duty aboard the new cruiser Charleston, now at the Norfolk navy yard, where it will shortly be placed in commission for the first time.

MASS MEETING.

Democrats Endorse Candidates for House and Clerk of Court.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
GATTS CITY, VA., Sept. 18.—A large mass meeting of Democrats here Saturday endorsed the candidacy of Mr. B. F. Johnson for county clerk and Mr. M. M. Starnes for House of Delegates. The endorsement is equivalent to a nomination, and these gentlemen are now the regular candidates of the party. They are strong, clean men, and in consequence will be elected. Each will draw strongly from the Republican ranks.
Mr. B. T. Duke, elected county chairman and Mr. J. D. Broadwater, secretary. At the conclusion of the regular business of the meeting Judge V. F. Rhea, of Bristol, was introduced and made a forcible address. He contrasted Virginia's record under Democratic rule with that of Pennsylvania, and the rottenness and graft that prevail in all the departments of government when the white people of Virginia were struggling for supremacy. He has been a Republican all the time, and in a crisis when the Democracy was struggling for the welfare and upbuilding of the State it was opposed by Judge Lewis. He urged the Democracy to organize thoroughly, and prepare for the coming year, when the State is winning a glorious victory. The address aroused great enthusiasm.

Army of Cumberland.

(By Associated Press.)
CHATTANOOGA, TENN., September 18.—The delegates to the reunion of the Army of the Cumberland to-night heard the annual address by Colonel John J. McCook, of New York city.
The election of officers will occur on Wednesday. It is particularly certain that General G. P. Harrison, of Louisville, will succeed the late General S. V. Boynton as president of the society.

THE REPUBLICAN CAMPAIGN IS ON

Sowder and Hoge Open Campaign at Chattanooga.

EDUCATION THE MAIN ISSUE

National Issues Come in for Good Share of Discussion.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
CHATHAM, VA., September 18.—The Republican campaign was opened in Pittsylvania county to-day with speeches by V. M. Sowder, nominee for Secretary of the Commonwealth, and S. H. Hoge, postmaster at Roanoke. Dr. S. A. Reynolds, county chairman, presided and introduced the speakers. The main issue of the campaign, as set forth in the speeches to-day, will be education, as both speakers devoted a great part of their time to that subject.

Mr. Sowder paid his respects to the senatorial campaign, saying that both Martin and Montague had machines, and the latter's, as compared with the former's, was like a wheelbarrow to an automobile. Fraud in the Richmond municipal primary came in for his share. The remainder of his speech was on national politics.

Mr. Hoge followed in a speech of one hour, principally along the same lines. He touched on the gubernatorial campaign, repeating that each of the Democratic candidates said the other two were not the men for the place, to which he agreed.

He presented in a very laudatory manner the great credit derived from the present administration, and the great good that would result should the Republicans win in November.

QUITE A FROST.

Kent and Moore Fail to Arouse Enthusiasm.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
HARRISONBURG, VA., September 18.—William P. Kent, nominee for Lieutenant-Governor, and United States District Attorney Thomas Lee Moore struck a frost to-day when they appeared here to address the citizens of Rockingham county at September court in behalf of the Republican State ticket. Their audience at no time contained over 150 voters, and a part of the time scarcely half that number. Mr. Kent's speech was delivered in polished style, but it was a bitter denunciation of the Democratic party of Virginia, which he claimed was still allied with the old slave-holding, Yankee-cursing element of the Southern States, and opposed to progress and material advancement.

District Attorney Moore's speech was in better temper, but discussed national issues largely, but charged that the Democratic party was primarily opposed to the education of the masses, and could not be trusted to fulfill any promises in behalf of the public schools.
Under Democratic rule he said negro children in the schools were only larger or smaller than white children in the country. That part of the audience which was not composed of Democrats was in a fairly responsive mood and cheered the speakers.

As a political demonstration the meeting was one of the flattest failures ever seen in Rockingham.
